

Barn Swallow Gardens

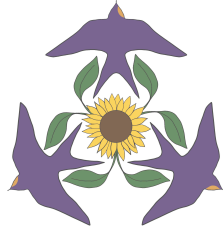

À La Carte Weddings

We want to make your day magical. Our family farm produces blooms grown in mountain air, with the utmost love and care. We have a wide variety of unique blooms that can't be found in a floral shop. We grow and occasionally forage in our mountain home, these deep connections to the land allow us to create meaningful arrangements that evoke memories and creates new ones. The care we take to grow our blooms is the same care we'll take to create stunning florals for you, on your one, unique, magical day.

Ordering flowers À La Carte from us allows us to create individualized arrangements that can be placed perfectly on your wedding day. They'll be labeled and arranged so you can easily delegate the task of flower pick-up to a bridesmaid or family member. Our organization and clear communication keeps your wedding day stress-free.

Our À La Carte system is not ideal for couples who would like an elaborate set-up or have very specific flowers types in mind. We will create gorgeous arrangements using seasonal blooms and tailor them to your palette and style, however installation is not included if ordering À La Carte flowers. We'd be happy to talk through a venue with you about what to order. By keeping our offerings streamlined we get to focus on the flowers and creating something beautiful! Our pricing is transparent, so you can create your own custom package while staying true to your budget.

Please read through the following pages and reach out with any questions!
We look forward to working with you!
